Tenses

The Tense of a Verb shows the time when an action takes place.

There are three Tenses :

I. Present Tense

II. Past Tense

III. Future Tense

In order to show at what stage an action is, each of the three tenses has been sub-divided into four heads. These sub-divisions are—

Tense	Indefinite	Continuous or Progressive	Perfect	Perfect Continuous
Present	I play	I am playing	I have played	I have been playing
Past	I played	I was playing	I had played	I had been playing
Future	I shall play	I shall be playing	I shall have played	I shall have been playing

Thus, the tense of a verb does not show the time of an action or event alone. It shows the state of that action also.

I. The Present Tense

A. Simple Present Tense

(Subject + 1st form of the verb (s/es) + object)

The Simple Present is used to express :

- (i) A habitual action
- (ii) A general truth
- (iii) What is happening (in exclamatory sentences only)
- (iv) An order or request.

(i) A habitual action :

I go for a walk daily.

He comes to school at 8 O'clock.

(ii) General truth :

The sun rises in the east.

Two and two make four.

(iii) What is happening :

Here comes the chief guest !

(iv) An order or request :

Obeey your teachers.

The structure of the simple present tense :

Passive Voice:-

What is active voice:- We use an active verb to say what the subject does, is called active voice.

For Example:

- I. My grandson was a builder. He builds house in 1930.
- II. It is a big company. It employs two hundred people.

What is passive voice:- We use an passive verb to say what happens to the subject, is called passive voice.

For Example:

- I. This house is quite old. It was built in 1930.
- II. Two hundred people are employed by the company.

When we use the passive, who or what causes the action is often unknown or unimportant.

For Example:

- I. A lot of money was stolen in the robbery. (Somebody stole it but we don't know 'who')
- II. Is this room cleaned every day? (Does somebody clean it it's not important 'who')

If we want to say 'who' does or 'what' causes the action is used 'by'

For Example:

- I. This house was built by my grandfather.
- II. Two hundred people are employed by the company.

There are the three basic rules to change from active to passive voice:-

- I. III form of the verb, (V^3) is used in all tenses.
- II. The 'object' in active voice becomes 'subject' in passive & the 'subject' becomes 'object' in passive voice.
- III. 'By' is used before object in passive voice.

Complete the sentences using one of these verbs in the correct form:-

- I. Many accidents are caused by dangerous driving (cause)
- II. Cheese is made from milk. (make)
- III. The roof of the building was damaged in a storm a few days ago.
(damage)
- IV. There is no need to leave a tip. Service is included in the bill. (include)
- V. You were invited to the wedding. Why didn't you go? (invite)

Study the active & passive form of the all tense by this table:-
